I became aware of Loving Arms Elder Care agency through a friend of mine who had used the agency for her parents on a temporary basis. It was the best recommendation our family could have ever received.

My parents were still living independently at a retirement community but were both in a state of decline physically and mentally. Loving Arms was able to come in and provide excellent care and act as an extension of our family in very short notice. A team of caregivers were matched to my parents' needs and personalities and immediately my parents embraced them.

The caregivers were compassionate, caring, and even creative with holiday decorating. They helped with personal hygiene, meal preparation and kept the apartment clean and orderly. They assisted us with their medical appointments and reminded them daily about taking their meds. As their health further declined, Loving Arms staff and caregivers constantly kept us in the loop with regular communication.

Loving Arms was truly a god send to our family and parents. The caregivers enriched my parents' last months and years beyond our expectations for which we will be forever grateful.

My family would unequivocally recommend Loving Arms Elder Care Agency to care for their loved ones.
